Get Inspired

Arrive at your first design consultation with inspirational remodel photos or pages from magazines. Take some snaps of spaces you like. Be ready to speak to your favorite colors and textures. Think about the kind of space you need for the way you live.

Pg. 3

Find Your Look

What's your personal style? Are you more traditional, contemporary or maybe you favor an unstudied eclectic look. Your lifestyle, the way you dress, the treasures you collect and favorite colors will help you choose a door style and finish that's you.

Pg. 9

Plan Your Space

Design a space that fits your life. Consider how you prepare meals and entertain. Whether you're single, a couple or a growing family, create work zones that make preparing meals and life easier. And remember there's no such thing as too much storage.

Pg. 23

Choose Details

Details will personalize your space. Choose crown moldings, glass doors, hardware and organization items to make sure your space is appointed with style and functionality. Express your personal style with finishing touches to your remodel.

Pg. 31

Let's Make it Happen

It's time to start your remodel. American Woodmark® is here for you with inspiration and support. Use tools like the ENVISION 3D Remodeling Tool and order finish samples. Work with The Home Depot® designer. Prepare for demo and the installation of your new space.

Pg. 45

OPENING NEW DOORS TO SATISFACTION WITH PRODUCTS AND SUPPORT THAT ARE SECOND TO NONE

American Woodmark® is proud to be ranked "Highest in Customer Satisfaction with Kitchen Cabinets" by J.D. Power. American Woodmark is also recognized for superior performance in ordering and delivery, price, and design features in the J.D. Power 2020 Kitchen Cabinet Satisfaction Study. When you choose American Woodmark for your remodeling or new construction project, you can rest assured you've chosen to work with the best in the business.

YOUR IDEAL SPACE IS A REFLECTION OF YOU

What speaks to you? Do you see a golden sunset and feel awe-inspired? Do you see a colorful blanket your grandmother made you and feel warmth? Do you take a walk in the woods and feel a sense of peace? Think about places, people and things that you love. Then think about your favorite colors and textures: the sights, sounds and smells that engage and excite you. Take snapshots, pull pictures from magazines and share this inspiration with your Home Depot designer.

GET INSPIRED

It's time to envision your ideal kitchen, bath, office or any other space in your home. To ensure a successful design consultation, it's important to be well prepared.

TOP 5 ITEMS TO BRING TO A DESIGN CONSULTATION

1. SCOPE OF WORK

Determine the basic parameters and budget of the remodel work you wish to do. Will you be using the existing footprint or adding square footage to your kitchen, bath or other space? Will you need to relocate any plumbing, gas lines or electricity? Not sure? Your designer will help.

2. HOW YOU USE YOUR KITCHEN OR REMODELED SPACE

Consider functionality that suits your current lifestyle and can adapt to future changes. Do you want a chef's kitchen? An open floor plan for entertaining? If you're redoing a bath, do you want efficiency, for starting your days, or a more spa-like atmosphere? For a new home office, think current technology, storage for printers and supplies, and lighting for those video conferences.

3. FEATURES THAT FIT YOUR LIFESTYLE

Your new space needs to conform to your unique lifestyle. Function is as important as beauty, so think about the way your family will use the space. Everything from parties to pets will dictate the design. Remember that storage and organization details are critical in reducing clutter in any space and making it more livable.

4. STYLE INSPIRATION

To achieve a look and feel you'll love, explore the things that inspire you most. Collect inspirational images; appealing remodel photos, color swatches and samples of materials to share with your Home Depot designer. Things you've collected like beautiful rugs and artwork are clear statements that'll help define your look.

5. PRIORITIES & MUST-HAVES

Now's the time to assess your needs. Determine your preferred door style and finish first. Then list the features you can't live without, ranked by importance.

Appliances for a kitchen should be chosen first and then functional and style details. For baths, fixtures and functional details are key. For offices and many other spaces, today's technology is a big priority.

FURNISH ANY SPACE WITH FUNCTION AND STYLE

Cabinetry can make a huge difference in your home well beyond just the kitchen and bathroom. The Home Depot® designer can work with you to find stylish and functional uses for storage anywhere in your home. Built-in cabinetry in your living room eliminates clutter and can create a clean and cozy look. Keep entryways and mudrooms smart and organized with plenty of storage, coat hooks, shelves and a bench where you can kick off your shoes and tuck them away. A window seat is the perfect place for additional storage and curling up with a good book. And, everything doesn't need to be built-in. Keep in mind that American Woodmark's full range of cabinets, door styles and finishes can be used to create unique stand alone furniture pieces to fit any space and your life perfectly.

PREPARE TO LIVE WITHOUT A KITCHEN

The remodel process is disruptive, but you’ll love the results. During the demo and installation of your kitchen, have another place in mind for preparing simple meals and refrigerating food. A garage, mudroom or laundry room can work temporarily. This is a good time for takeout and dining at the neighbors’ house.

Budgeting and assessing your needs

GETTING THE MOST BANG FOR YOUR BUCK

You'll get the most out of your remodel investment dollars when you start with an emphasis on functionality, complemented with the look you want to achieve. The Home Depot® designer will help spec appliances first so your cabinets can be ordered with all dimensions in mind. On a tight budget, choose the most important things first and other add-ons or upgrades later. For example; the must-haves now would be cabinetry, primary organization items, appliances, moldings, faucets, sinks and countertops. Details like special hardware, lighting fixtures and even backsplashes can be added later while controlling costs in the shorter term.

But don't sacrifice the must-haves or you'll end up with something called "Reverse buyer's remorse." This is when homeowners fail to invest in important features and regret it later.

FUNCTIONALITY IS KEY

Your new kitchen must be laid out based on the way you live and prepare meals. The value of a kitchen far exceeds just cooking. It is the heart of the home: a place for entertaining, dining, doing homework and today, taking Zoom calls. Keep charging stations in mind for your technology. Lighting is key for reading and video conferences. And don't forget organization items so you can stay organized for life and work!

ADD VALUE TO YOUR HOME

Cost is often what stands between many and their dream remodel. But, when you consider it's an investment that adds value, deciding to remodel is a much easier choice. The *Hanley Wood Remodeling 2020 Cost vs. Value Report shows that a major kitchen remodel recoups, on average, 58.6% of the investment. And a midrange bathroom remodel, on average, recoups 64% of the initial investment.

40 YEARS OF GETTING IT RIGHT

When you choose American Woodmark® for your remodel, you've chosen a trusted partner with 40 years of kitchen and bath experience at The Home Depot®. American Woodmark prides itself on delivering quality stock and semi-custom cabinetry along with design support and attentive customer service you can count on. Our cabinetry is an unbeatable value that can create spaces that make a lasting impression for years to come. A wide variety of options like all-plywood construction, soft close doors/drawers and a full range of decorative accents allow you to create a space that's all you. From inspiration to installation, we're with you every step of the way.

WOOD AND FINISHES AGE. IT'S ONLY NATURAL.

While we match wood grains as closely as possible, variations are part of what makes our quality wood products so distinctive and beautiful. Over time and exposure to sunlight, smoke and chemicals, some cabinet finishes naturally fade or vary from their original color. Be sure and order all the cabinetry you need at the same time because cabinets purchased at a later date may not exactly match cabinets installed today.

LEESBURG DURAFORM HARBOR & DURAFORM ESPRESSO

THE NATURAL COLOR AND BEAUTY OF WOODMARK'S DOOR STYLES AND FINISHES

Every cabinet door created by American Woodmark® is carefully selected. When it all comes together, homeowners are certain to be satisfied with the look, style and "Wow" of their new living space.

CHERRY

Cherry is a close-grained, multicolored hardwood with occasional pin knots and fine grain variations appearing as curls and waves. Streaking, knots and subtle color variations are what give this wood its unique character. Its color typically darkens some over time.

MAPLE

Maple is an exceptionally hard, finely grained wood species with a fine, even texture. Many love the darker stains that moderate the color variance and lighter stains that mellow with golden hues over time.

PAINTED

Painted finishes combine hardwoods and engineered materials including solid wood, medium density fiberboards (MDF), high density fiberboard (HDF) and similar materials to achieve superior stability, consistency, coverage and durability.

DURAFORM

Duraform uses foils and coatings bonded to composite wood material, creating cabinets that are highly resistant to warping, heat, humidity and fading. This innovative process makes it extremely durable and easy to clean. Duraform finishes allow Duraform cabinet doors to exhibit the same styling and detail found in solid wood doors.

DURAFORM TEXTURES

Relying on today's latest technologies, these stylish textures have been created for long-lasting and durable use. This range of finishes bonded to composite wood appeals to the designer and homeowner alike with their versatility and ability to create a range of today's latest styles.

TOP 5 REMODELING MISTAKES

Congratulations, you've finally decided to make your remodel dreams come true! You know that this project will add value to your home and your life will be easier. But, wait, not so fast. Unfortunately, not all remodeling projects run smoothly. Mistakes are common and can be costly. An experienced Home Depot designer can guide you through the remodel process and help you avoid the common pitfalls.

NOT SETTING A BUDGET

Assess your needs then create a written budget. This will save you from spending too much money on the wrong elements. Remember, surprises are inevitable so plan for the unexpected. Generally, people add 15% to the total cost of the remodel for unexpected costs.

REVERSE BUYERS REMORSE

For all the money you spend, and inconvenience you go through, make sure you're not cutting out essential elements you'll regret later. Spend the money, add the pull-out trash can now and let the new chandelier wait.

NOT PICKING APPLIANCES FIRST

One of the costliest mistakes is ordering your new cabinets only to have them arrive and not fit with your appliances. To avoid this debacle, measure, measure and measure again. Not all appliances are created equally.

NOT DOING YOUR RESEARCH

Whether it's materials, fixtures, appliances or a contractor, do not rely on word of mouth alone. Shop around and do your research. Review all of your choices and ask questions to ensure you get the best quality and price.

NOT PLANNING FOR DISRUPTION

Disruption during a remodel is inevitable so make a plan before you begin construction. Set up a temporary kitchen that includes a dining area and dishwashing station. Make sure kids and pets are kept at a safe distance from the construction site. Don't forget to keep your neighbors informed as your remodel may impact their lives too.

GARNER PAINTED NAVY

ROOM FOR TWO

In these work-from-home times, you're spending more time than ever with your partner. And while it's wonderful that you're both working from home and get to see each other so much, you still need your own space. Space to unwind, space to relax and space to take care of yourself. A double vanity ensures that you each get your own area, with plenty of storage cabinets and drawers to keep the space looking clean and organized. Living together is wonderful, but living on top of each other is unnecessary.

YOUR HOME OFFICE SHOULD BE YOUR SANCTUARY

Working on your laptop from the living room couch used to be great... until the kids came along. Nowadays, you're lucky if you get a seat all to yourself. Working from home means you need a home office space that allows you to focus. Floor-to-ceiling cabinets and drawers keep all your files and important documents out of reach from sticky fingers. Position your desk right in front of a window and let that natural light rejuvenate you before you head into the other room for what is sure to be a chaotic dinner time.

SCHOOL IS IN SESSION... AND IN YOUR BASEMENT

Whether you're homeschooling or participating in virtual learning, one thing is for sure – the kids need their space. Turn your basement into a multi-functional playroom and schoolroom. Large drawers and cabinets keep supplies organized. Open shelving under the seats leaves room to store toys and games while school is in session. A large blackboard in one corner will help delineate between the school area and the play area. And the best part? It's all downstairs, where you can close the door when it gets too noisy.

AN ENTRY THAT'S INVITING AND FUNCTIONAL

In the days to come, you will have people over to your house again. When that happens, create a space that's functional and makes an impression. A lovely cushioned bench in the entryway welcomes them to your home. Closets to hang their coats and cabinets where you can store your keys makes life convenient. Lower hanging closets keep all of the coats and boots organized and out of sight during the colder months!

HUTCHES ADD EXTRA STORAGE AND EXTRA STYLE

You have so many great things, but don't necessarily want them all cluttering up your countertops. Hutches are a great way to add extra storage. Use glass cabinet doors to add style and now you have an impressive piece that is both functional and beautiful.

CREATE YOUR ZONES

Why not create a space that does it all? By setting up different zones in your kitchen, your space can serve all your needs from early morning coffee on work days to throwing a weekend dinner party.

/ PRO TIP

A butler's pantry will store your good china and fancy table runners for those dinner parties, or when your in-laws visit.

/ PRO TIP

A wine bar keeps all your glassware organized and ready for use after a long day.

/ PRO TIP

A coffee bar helps you start your day off right with easy access to that important beverage.

THIS KITCHEN'S OPEN FOR ENTERTAINING

You work and play hard so your living spaces should do the same. An open kitchen floor plan offers an ideal setting to entertain friends and family—with plenty of space to socialize at a distance. A large island provides a central place to do it all—prep, cook, chat and dine without missing any action in the living room. A combination of open shelving and cabinets ensures all of your pots, pans and utensils have their place conveniently in arm's reach. While you're busy preparing dinner, a well-stocked wine bar allows everyone to serve themselves, so you have more time to focus on being the perfect hostess. With plenty of seating and a warm fire, this is definitely the place to be. Cheers to a space that's open for entertaining and relaxing in style!

FULL OVERLAY VS. PARTIAL OVERLAY WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

A full overlay door just means that the door or drawer front covers most of the cabinet frame. This seamless appearance produces a more modern look.

A partial overlay allows 1-1/16" exposure of the cabinet frame, creating a more traditional look.

FULL OVERLAY DOORS COVER MOST OF THE CABINET FRAME.

PARTIAL OVERLAY DOORS REVEAL SOME OF THE CABINET FRAME.
